

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to run political propaganda in the form of a documentary using its broadcasting media is wrong. What's worse would be for the FCC to do nothing in response. For a media group to use its political values in the operation of its stations goes against the democratic process. Please react to Sinclair's decision and prevent such activity from happening again. It's time to bring back the Fairness Doctrine.